Proverbs 29:2 "When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice; But when a wicked man rules, the people groan."

I am a leader of _____.

A person who can influence, inspire and inform others by providing wisdom and understanding to reach a particular purpose. A leader must trust in the LORD with all their heart, lean not on their own understanding; in all their ways acknowledge Him, and allow Him to direct their paths. Proverbs 3:5-6

"Reflections"

† Proverbs 4:7 "Wisdom is the principal thing; Therefore get wisdom. And in all your getting, get understanding"

It is such an honor to be in a relationship with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! We have obtained some vital tools to finish this journey strong. As we continue, trials and tribulation will not be extracted from this journey (2 Tim. 3:12). They build our character (Rom. 5:1-5). We've become more educated, empowered, encouraged, equipped and edified concerning what it takes to stay the course. Being a member of the body of Christ has its privileges (Heb. 10:24-25). Being a disciple for Christ requires discipline, direction and discernment (Jn. 8:31). Leaders in the Kingdom of God have great reward (Prov. 29:2). Being an instrument that God could use to bring others into the full knowledge of Jesus Christ is truly a blessing. Were any the tools in the Keys to the Kingdom result in you being used to illuminate the life of someone?  Yes  No
If so, which key was the most helpful? _____

The keys to the Kingdom has unlocked new dimension in Christendom. Reading God's Word is extremely informative and insightful (2 Tim. 3:16). It provides clarity and wisdom about what God expects from us all. His promises are clearly defined and provided hope for our walk with Christ. When we do what God commands, we receive the promises that our heart's desire (Ps. 37:4). We only have two more keys and eight more Bible books to be complete. What has been the most impactful key for you thus far? _____ Why?

True ministry begins within. We can't just study the Bible without applying the Biblical principles to our daily lives. Remember, when ministering to others, you can't be all things to all people. Use wisdom and ask God for guidance. "Search me, O God, and know my heart; Try me, and know my anxieties; And see if there is any wicked way in me, And lead me in the way everlasting" (Ps. 23-24). As you reflect on the lessons learned over the past 50 weeks, what changes have you made or can you make to minister to yourself and to others more effectively?

† Romans 12:2 “... be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.”

If you seek the Kingdom of God first, Godly assignments, ministry opportunities and divine purpose will find you (Mt. 6:33, Mt. 7:8). As you reflect on the lessons learned over the past 50 weeks, what changes have you made or can you make to continuously minister to yourself and to others more effectively?

Ephesians 4:11-16 “He Himself gave....for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; that we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting, but, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head—Christ—from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love.” What does this scripture mean to you personally and how can you apply it to your life?
