"Forward Focus"

Name: Makyah Cecilia Moss
Age: 10 years old

My family is helpful and encouraging and they look out for me. They always say they love me and they make sure I'm ok. Especially my mommy. She loves me and my grandma and Gigi.

My church teaches me a lot about God. In children's church they teach me about trust and they make sure I love God and they care. Bishop Robinson, he loves us and First Lady too. I like being on the Jr. Usher Board and working with Minister Yvonne. School, I love it so far and they are nice. I am in the fourth grade and an honor roll student. They care about our knowledge a lot. I enjoyed meeting First Lady Michelle Obama at my school this month. She hugged me and gave me a kiss. She taught us about exercise and eating right.

Did you know...

The First Lady of the United States (FLOTUS) Michelle Obama is a gifted woman who has overcome many struggles just as you and I. She is the perfect example of an individual who was not influenced by her environment but by her decisions. It was probably challenging growing up but her economic status didn't stop her from learning so that she could create a better future for herself. With the help of God, perseverance and determination, she managed to accomplish remarkable goals. While her life didn't start out favorable, she believed that her future would offer endless opportunities and successes. The life of FLOTUS reminds us that there is a plausible path to success.

"Leaving The Nest"

Name: Mircale Miller
Age: 18 years old

I was born and raised in the church. For as long as I can remember I have attended the Master's Child Church faithfully every Sunday morning. Even though the size of the church and the location have changed it's still a place that I have always called home.

I could always depend on Bishop Robinson and First Lady to give me words of encouragement if my faith was ever shaken. I could always depend on a hot cooked meal if maybe my mother was a little tired that evening, and I could always depend on the Mothers Board to act as second mothers to me and always provide me with guidance.

But now that I'm in college; I'm 5 hours away in North Carolina and I'll have to maintain my own faith while my church is hundreds of miles away. I know it will be hard to adjust at first but I know God will be with me. He was with me while I was waiting to hear back from A&T, He was with me when I met with my advisors, and I know He will be with me as I step on campus and start my long journey towards my career. I know with the faith and support of my parents and by putting my faith in God there is nothing that I can't achieve.

Monthly Motivational Moment...

As Mircale has stated, the Mothers Board of MCC is always there to serve as second mothers and provide guidance. This month, chose any member of the Mothers Board and love on them to express your appreciation. (You can give them a hug, make a card, etc. I encourage you to be creative!!)
